

A B O U T

MARY REED

In December 2000, I was a staunchly agnostic healthcare executive in Washington, DC when I began veering uncontrollably into metaphysical experiences with Jesus, Buddha, and angels. After 10 years of confusion trying to understand what was happening, my “normal” life collapsed.

Fortuitously, at the lowest point of my despair I was invited to the Himalayas and ended up living in a tiny Buddhist nunnery for years coming to terms with my unexpected mystical abilities. That story is the basis of my first book, Unwitting Mystic.

Today I am a joy-centered mystic wisdom guide and channeler, using my profound experiences and abilities as both a road map and an invitation into the higher consciousness available to all now. I am assisted and accompanied in this work by my spirit (and spirited) guides, Consensus, as well as my dear friends Corene Crossin and Lisa Dewey. Together we don't just offer awakened perspectives on ancient spiritual wisdom, we offer the experiential application – the present moment living – of that wisdom.

WEBSITE: happyeasylife.com

